Person 220

Operations Manager

I work mainly in the delivery of the organisation remit across Fife and Clackmannan. This includes line management / countersigning officer responsibility for 14 staff who work with designated sites to improve conditions and respond to planning applications. I also manage our Community Planning service nationally, which involves co-ordinating the activity of those staff doing community planning with Local Authorities and working to make sure they have the advice and information they need.

Career Level: Senior Manager

Location: Fife and Clackmannan

Preferred target sector: Scottish Government, Third Sector, Private sector.

Person 244

Chief Inspector

Career Level: Middle/Senior Manager

Location: Aberdeen

Preferred target sector: Public – Justice, Scottish Government, Private sector.

I have been employed with the same organisation for approximately 27 years, I have held a variety of different roles during my employment. My current role involves the management of complaints, managing a team of investigators and their case loads and the reporting of these cases to the relevant body. I also deal with performance and conduct issues within the organisation including any early intervention work. I am part of a newly restructured large organisation governed by legislation.

Person 322

Income Generation Manager

Career Level: Middle Manager

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector: Private Sector

My role is to develop and implement an income generation plan for a charity. We are supported mostly through public funds and with growing cuts I am looking at developing new funding streams as well as develop relationships with the corporate sector. A basis of this plan is a need for a marketing and communications strategy that will build the profile of the organisation. I have experience in marketing, trust and foundation fundraising and sponsorship.

Expertise	What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?	Interested in exploring	What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?

An understanding of the judicial system and of changes in Criminal Justice. Creative thinking, communications, presentation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Effective working •Strategic planning •Leadership skills 	I have a large job and a mountain to climb. I sometimes find myself overwhelmed with different projects and would like to be able to talk through strategy so that I can feel more confident in my approach to the Board as well as to potential supporters/investors. Managing time whilst thinking creatively and ensuring I can measure results against strategy.

Person 326

Senior Public Health Research Specialist

Career Level: Middle Manager

Location: Glasgow

Preferred target sector: Public Health

I am a researcher with expertise in research and evaluation across a range of topics, all of which are pertinent to public health. My particular interests include asset-based approaches for health improvement (community-based and within service settings), resilience as a key concept for public health, and education / childcare in the early years related to health and wellbeing. As well as developing and implementing a range of research projects, and subsequently reporting on these, I act in an advisory capacity for research and evaluation projects.

Expertise	What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?	Interested in exploring	What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asset-based approaches • Resilience management • Research and evaluation 	I can offer support and advice in developing and taking forward research and / or evaluation work. I can also provide a useful link to a vast array of expertise at the Glasgow Centre for Population Health, making contacts and signposting to useful research / publications / data and in-depth knowledge across many topics.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical experience of Primary care • Early years provision & education 	My role is largely desk-based with periods of fieldwork. I would like to gain a much more solid understanding of Primary Care (in Glasgow in particular) in a practical sense and, if possible, would also value some insight into statutory and voluntary provision for the early years - both in terms of childcare and education (again, preferably within Glasgow).

Person 328

National Director

Career Level: Senior Manager

Location: Glasgow

Preferred target sector:

Public Health, Local Authorities, Justice, Education

I am the National Director of my organisation and have been for over 20 years now. I am passionate about support to my organisation’s cause and feel this is what drives it forward. I have had to develop many of the skills I now have on the job and through doing.

Expertise	What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?	Interested in exploring	What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Partnership working • Areas of experience • Assets based approaches • Partnership working • Stakeholder engagement • Community engagement 	I can offer a real view on how it is to work in the 3rd sector under pressure from lack of funding to engaging with hard to reach clients. I can offer the opportunity to spend time with the team at my organisation and see their resilient as workers but also how they build resilience in communities. I will offer honesty and support around understanding why people get involved and why they don't.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Change management • Communications • Performance measurement •Commissioning •Strategic planning •Prioritisation •Leadership 	I would like to be more confident in different environments and be able to get the message of my organisation across to others in a clear and succinct manner. I would like to find new ways of managing my time and how to pull myself out of the day to day issues of staff. I also want to become more strategic and be able to choose where and when is best to use my time.

Person 329

Manager

Career Level: Middle/Senior Manager

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector:

Local Authorities, Scottish Government

I have been with working in my organisation for four and a half years, and in my current post as Manager for the past two and a half. I have worked in the Third Sector for 19 years and qualified as a social worker for the past 16 years. There are still many things I have to learn about management, and I am always eager to take on fresh perspectives.

Person 331

Manager

Career Level: Senior

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector:

Public - Scottish Government, Private Sector

In my role as Manager, I am a senior staff member and line-manage 5 employees. Our charity provides practical and social support to people living with a terminal illness. Our services are delivered thanks to the support we have from our team of 75 volunteers. I have to 'wear many hats' to cover the multiple aspects of my role. A typical day involves attending to HR issues, submitting funding applications, speaking to service users and volunteers, and liaising with the Board of Directors.

Expertise

- Partnership working
- Project management
- Strategic planning
- Fundraising
- Operational Reporting
- Leadership
- Working with volunteers

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

As a leader of a small charity, I can demonstrate how we make best use of our resources and demonstrate our efficiency to our funders. Our outcome reporting is strong and appreciated by funders, something others might benefit from. I can offer an insight into how we use a volunteer team to deliver effective and consistent services.

Interested in exploring

- Strategic planning
- Prioritisation and delegation
- Governance
- Relationship building

What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?

Thinking about career progression, I would be interested in seeing how a leader of a larger organisation manages their time and resources. I am particularly interested in seeing the tools they use and hearing about their engagement with their own Board.

Person 332

Leadership & Professional Development Facilitator

Career Level: Middle Manager

Location: Glasgow, West Dunbartonshire, East Dunbartonshire, Glasgow, East Renfrewshire, North Lanarkshire, Falkirk, Perth and Kinross, Stirling, South Lanarkshire

Preferred target sector: Public - Fire & Rescue, Local Authorities, Scottish Government, Health, Prison

I have previous experience from an HR / Recruitment background working in various large public sector organisations. I currently work in a large public sector organisation and am based within People and Development under Leadership and Professional Development. My role as a Leadership and Professional Development Facilitator is to enhance awareness / provide support within the organisation in relation to national promotion processes, national mentoring programmes, national appraisal processes and development tools that can be used to aid personal and professional development. I often sit on promotion selection panels and interview candidates for career progression. I also deliver various briefings and workshops to help enhance development opportunities and support. I have recently been involved in designing a national mentoring programme that will shortly be launching within the organisation.

Expertise

- People management
- Performance measurement
- Mentoring / Recruitment / Promotion

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

An understanding of the challenges faced within a large public sector organisation in relation to the aim of changing current organisational culture. Information / support in relation to designing mentoring programmes, appraisal processes and promotion processes.

Interested in exploring

- Performance measurement
- Programme evaluation / development tools

What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?

I would like to be partnered with someone in a similar role so that I can share best practice in relation to promotion / mentoring / development tools / appraisal processes.

Person 333

Business and Community Initiatives Manager

Career Level: Middle/Senior Manager

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector: Third Sector/ACOSVO member

I have managed the set up and am now running a social enterprise company. The company is growing fast. I have overall responsibility for its commercial growth, delivery and the community initiatives we will be engaging in with the community to support them in developing and delivering projects. I have written business and delivery plans and been involved heavily in budgets and forecasting. I love the balance between operational and strategic but the huge workload since operations began in October is not sustainable and I really don't want to lose my energy and commitment to the detriment of the company's success.

Expertise

- Customer service
- Staff management
- Partnership working
- Community engagement
- Business Planning
- Budgeting and Forecasting

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

I am a Manager who enjoys managing staff and team building. I have designed and delivered customer service training specialising in third sector approaches and challenges. I have extensive experience of developing community projects and partnerships in creative and collaborative projects.

Director

Career Level: Senior Manager

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector: Public - Education, Local Authorities, Scottish Government, private sector

I work in a voluntary organisation that has a combined purpose of influencing policy in order to better serve our service users, and offering direct support services. I head the national branch of a UK wide organisation - this comes with its benefits and challenges. I have worked in different roles in the voluntary sector for several years and am learning a lot from the required autonomy of my current role, given the geographical location of my CEO line manager.

I have been CEO of my organisation for over 4 years. Previously to that, over a 23 year period, I led 3 different large organisations through considerable transformational change. I am supported by 2 senior managers and together we lead a staff team of 25. As part of my role, I oversee the work of a Therapy Centre and recently had overall responsibility for a relocation to a £1.1m new centre. This was a 2 year project. Now that I have a little more capacity, I am interested in this programme if the right match can be achieved.

Person 338

Communications Manager

Career Level: Middle Manager

Location: Perth and Kinross

Preferred target sector: Public - Scottish Government, Public - Environment

I have worked in the environment sector for 25 years, and have had various roles, including research, policy, casework and now communications. I am now managing a small team working on stakeholder engagement, corporate reputation research, social media and Gaelic language planning.

Expertise

- Marketing, research & communication
- People management
- Change management
- Stakeholder engagement
- Policies
- Digital and social media

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

I have introduced new approaches to stakeholder engagement, corporate reputation research and digital media to my organisation. I engage staff and management in designing and implementing new approaches to fit the needs and objectives of the organization.

I can also offer experience in dealing with staffing issues arising from staff cutbacks and constant changes to teams, and in dealing with stress in the workplace.

Interested in exploring

- Digital and social media

What would you like to gain from a Leadership Exchange?

I would like to find out more about how other organisations develop digital and social media for a wide range of communication objectives.

I would also like to learn more about evaluation approaches to help best find out what our stakeholders think of us, including our reputation, effectiveness, and how easy it is to work with us. In both of these areas, I would like to know how approaches differ to suit the needs of each organisation, and how to ensure our chosen approach is as strong as it can be.

Person 339

CEO

Career Level: Chief Executive

Location: Edinburgh

Preferred target sector: Any

An optimist who enjoys a challenge and bringing about real positive change within organisations and to vulnerable people's lives. As CEO for over 2 years, of a well known 6 year old organisation, I have grown the organisation, service, annual income, and developed staff. However, there is still much to do! I believe I am a good listener. I am demanding of myself, lead from the front, and expect first class performance, but also appreciate people have issues and need support through them at times. I nurture a second family supportive atmosphere at work but also am ambitious. I have been on 5 Boards as a volunteer Trustee, worked for the Lottery for over 10 years and have over 30 years experience in the voluntary sector at senior management level.

Expertise

- Stakeholder engagement
- Business development
- Change management
- Leadership
- Staff management
- Fundraising experience

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

A good listener and always learning. Enthusiasm and commitment. Vision and happy to pioneer. Extensive experience at CEO level managing much change. Well known and networked within the voluntary sector. First class knowledge of the third sector through working with over 200 different bodies per year working for the Lottery. Proven successful fundraising record.

Centre Manager

Career Level: Senior Manager

Location: Falkirk

Preferred target sector: Public - Education Preferred, Public Health, Public Scottish Government, Third Sector/ACOSVO, Private Sector

I manage all aspects of a busy organisation. I line manager 10 staff who in turn are responsible for different aspects including Finance, HR, Centre User Activities, Building Maintenance, Fundraising, Recruitment and Training of Volunteers. Our organisation brings together practical advice, support, assessment and employment opportunities for people. I manage a partnership of 6 organisations including statutory and third sector bodies. My day to day role is varied. I am a member and a trustee for the Scottish Council. I am developing closer links with the local community and developing integrated services.

Expertise

- Customer service
- Partnership Working
- Working with Communities
- Staff management

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

I have experience of working both in public sector (Middle Management) and Third Sector. I have a good understanding of the different work styles in both sectors. I am very creative, solution focussed and a good listener. I have developed a high number of effective partnerships with different organisations and would like to share my experiences. I believe it can be isolating at times working in a senior management capacity. I welcome the opportunity to find common ground with a like-minded Exchange Partner to discuss areas of common interest and provide a "sounding board" for ideas.

My current role involves leading a team of 30 people across 2 locations. It involves people management, performance management, crisis / incident management, partnership working (internally and externally) and the creation of effective partnerships at a time of reduced budgets. This involves lateral thinking whilst remaining focused on the strategic intention and key objectives of the organisation. Customer expectation is increasing as is external scrutiny by government and local elect. This results in change management across process, application and attitude being a daily challenge. Prior to my current position I have had experience within training, public relations and project management during a major national reform process and prior to joining the organisation I worked for a charity teaching outdoor education. Preferred target sector: Public – Health,
Private sector

For almost five years I have been Head of my organisation. We are a membership organisation for local authorities and housing associations. We provide them with data insight and analysis to drive business efficiencies and improvements to deliver better outcomes for their tenants. I have spent over 20 years working in the social housing sector and have had roles which let me work nationally across Scotland since 1999. I am passionate about making a difference to the services tenants receive. I am responsible for all of our activities in Scotland and managing a small staff team. I work as part of my organisation's operational management team. I have been a member of the Chartered Institute of Housing since 1994 and more recently (2010) a board member. This board role enables me to put something back into the sector for the benefit of other professionals and tenants.

Person 360

Head teacher

Career Level: Senior Manager

Location: Perth & Kinross

Preferred target sector: Third Sector/ACOSVO member, Police, Third sector, Private, Or other

I am the Head of a teaching establishment, responsible for a team of approximately 100 adults and 800 young people. My role involves leading learning and ensuring that all young people get the best education we can offer against a backdrop of decreasing resources, increasing deprivation and staff pressures.

Expertise

- Leading conflicting interests
- Staff management
- Operational management
- Change management
- Strategic planning

What can you offer to your Leadership Exchange partner?

A unique insight into the leadership of a complex organisation. I operationally manage, multi task and prioritise situations on a daily basis – some situations often requiring immediate action. This requires balancing urgency with longer term strategic planning to best meet the demands of local and national priorities.

I juggle the duty of care that I have for staff with the duty of care for young people which means that skills of diplomacy, restoration and calm are essential.
