What is it?

Why are we doing this?

To promote Scottish third sector leadership and governance roles to ACOSVO members/chair network participants, third sector leaders, trustees and the wider sector.

Who is it for?

The Leadership Jobs Board is primarily for two audiences: individuals looking for leadership and governance roles; organisations wanting to advertise leadership and governance opportunities.

How will it work?

Participants will send abbreviated job adverts in the format below accompanied by organisation logo to ACOSVO. We will post the advert on a Leadership Jobs Board on our website linking through to the recruiter's/organisation's website for further detail (full job profile, description etc.) Alternatively, ACOSVO members and Chair Network participants who are unable to link the opportunity to their website can instead pass a contact name, email with the abbreviated job advert.
