UK HONOURS

Honours Subgroup

ACOSVO, through the Honours subgroup, will review all third sector nominations received and offer advice and support to the Scottish Government's Honours Team.

The group's key roles and responsibilities are:

- To add value and insight to ACOSVO in relation to the Scottish Government's identified guidelines for Honours Awards;
- To inform submissions and provide recommendations to ACOSVO in relation to Honours in the Scottish third sector;
- To assist ACOSVO in promoting the Honours Awards process;
- To uphold the credibility, integrity and confidentiality of the UK Honours process;
- The subgroup will be made up from representatives from our Board (all ACOSVO members) as agreed by the Board;
- Our members have been contacted directly about the Honours Panel nomination process however if you require this information again please contact office@acosvo.org.uk.
